

The Neighbourhood Food Hub at Glen Rhodes Campus

VENUE & EVENTS PACKAGE

THE VENUE

Nestled in Toronto's vibrant Little India, the Neighbourhood Food Hub makes its home at the historic Glen Rhodes Campus. Built in 1914, this unique community space and event venue is perfect for a variety of gatherings, from workshops and concerts to weddings and corporate functions. Your guests will be wowed by the venue's charm and character, whether you're celebrating a special occasion or hosting an important meeting.

The Glen Rhodes Campus is more than just a beautiful location. It's also home to the Neighbourhood Food Project, an innovative initiative to combat food insecurity and hunger in Toronto's East End. By bringing together the Leslieville Farmers' Market, Nourish East End Food Bank, Applegrove Family Services, and East End United Ministry, we're creating a hub for community connections and food security initiatives.

Thanks to the restoration of this aging community church and the addition of a vibrant arts and culture venue, we're able to generate revenue to ensure sustainability, all while fighting hunger and building stronger, healthier communities in the East End. Join us in our mission and help us make a positive impact in our community.
